

I, Lee A. Weiss, declare as follows

1. I am a member of Browne Woods George LLP, counsel for Plaintiff Stillwater Market Neutral Fund II LP.

2. I am familiar with the facts set forth below and submit this declaration in support of Stillwater Market Neutral Fund II LP's ("Stillwater Market Neutral") Motion to Consolidate Related Shareholder Derivative Actions, and to Appoint Co-Lead Plaintiffs and Co-Lead Counsel.

Letter Exchange with the Court Regarding Navigator's Meritless Assertion as to Stillwater's Standing

3. Attached as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of a letter dated September 5, 2008 from Navigator's counsel, Johnston de F. Whitman, Jr., to the Court.

4. Attached as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of a letter dated September 8, 2008 from Stillwater Market Neutral's prior counsel, Jordan W. Siev, to the Court.

Stillwater's Counsel Pursued an Important Subject Matter Jurisdiction Issue

5. Attached as Exhibit 3 are relevant excerpts from a true and correct copy of the transcript of the February 24, 2009 oral argument before this Court in Navigator Capital Partners, L.P. v. Bear Stearns Asset Management Inc., et al., No. 07 Civ. 7783 (AKH) (the "Navigator Action"), FIC, L.P. v. Bear Stearns Asset Management Inc., et al., No. 07 Civ. 11633 (AKH), and Varga v. The Bear Stearns Companies, Inc., et al., No. 08 Civ. 3397 (AKH).

6. Subsequent to the February 24, 2009 hearing, Browne Woods George LLP was contacted by Stillwater Market Neutral to review its claims against the Domestic High-Grade Fund. As part of its review of the procedural history in the Navigator Action, Browne Woods George identified the subject matter jurisdiction issue in the Navigator Action that is discussed in the Memorandum of Law in Support of Stillwater Market Neutral's consolidation motion.

Navigator and Defendant Effectively Exclude Stillwater from Discovery

7. Attached as Exhibit 4 are relevant excerpts from a true and correct copy of the transcript of the August 25, 2009 oral argument on the remand motion before this Court. During oral argument, the Court asked counsel for plaintiffs in the Navigator and Varga 2008 actions if the parties to the Varga 2009 and Stillwater actions could be worked into the First Joint Discovery Plan which the parties to the Navigator, FIC and Varga actions had entered in May 2009 at the Court's direction. Navigator's counsel responded, "Yes, Your Honor" without qualification.

8. Subsequent to the August 25, 2009 hearing, Stillwater Market Neutral's counsel drafted a Stipulation Amending First Joint Discovery Plan (the "Amended Discovery Plan"), to incorporate the parties to the Stillwater and Varga 2009 Actions into the discovery plan. On September 23, 2009, Navigator approved a version of the Amended Discovery Plan that did not impose any significant limitations on Stillwater Market Neutral's ability to pursue discovery. That plan was forwarded to counsel for defendants on September 24, 2009.<sup>1</sup>

9. At a meeting on October 1, 2009, counsel for Navigator (Stephen Oestreich and Arthur Nealon) and Stillwater Market Neutral (myself and Brent Burns) met and discussed, among other things, Stillwater Market Neutral's role in the litigation and the mechanics (and associated costs) for Stillwater Market Neutral to obtain a copy of the documents that defendants had already produced. At no time during the meeting did Navigator's counsel ever suggest that Stillwater Market Neutral was not entitled to the Phase I Discovery or that it would not provide a copy to Stillwater Market Neutral. Instead, it indicated that Navigator would provide an electronic copy of the Phase I Discovery if Stillwater Market Neutral paid the costs for the copy, which it estimated at no more than $10,000.00.

10. On October 21, 2009, defendants sent a revised version of the Amended Discovery Plan to plaintiffs' counsel into which, among other things, defendants inserted language that they would not be responsible for providing a copy of their already produced Phase I Discovery to Stillwater Market Neutral's counsel, but that nothing would prevent Navigator from providing Stillwater Market Neutral with the documents as long as Stillwater Market Neutral signed the operative protective order.

11. Consistent with the discussion at the October 1, 2009 meeting with Navigator's counsel, on October 28, 2009, Stillwater Market Neutral proposed a revision of defendants' language to counsel for all Plaintiffs, which expressly provided that Navigator would provide a copy of the Phase I Discovery to Stillwater Market Neutral if Stillwater Market Neutral signed the operative protective order and paid Navigator's reasonable costs.

12. On October 30, 2009, Navigator circulated a further revised version of the Amended Discovery Plan that deleted Stillwater Market Neutral's language requiring Navigator to provide Stillwater Market Neutral with a copy of the Phase I Discovery.

13. To attempt to avoid unnecessarily raising a dispute between plaintiffs with the Court, and to prevent any further delay, on November 2, 2009 Stillwater Market Neutral proposed to Navigator that it agree that defendants would provide a copy of the documents to Stillwater Market Neutral if Stillwater Market Neutral signed the operative protective order and paid defendants' reasonable costs.

14. On November 4, 2009, Navigator's counsel stated that it had no objection to defendants providing a copy of those documents to Stillwater Market Neutral. However, on November 9, 2009, Navigator's counsel stated that both it and the Bear Stearns and Walkers Defendants were unwilling to provide copies of the Phase I Discovery to Stillwater Market Neutral.

15. On November 13, 2009, Stillwater Market Neutral wrote to Navigator's counsel indicating that it would have no choice but to seek Court intervention if neither Navigator nor defendants will provide a copy of the relevant documents.

16. On November 23, 2009, Navigator returned to its prior position and indicated that it would provide Stillwater Market Neutral's counsel with a set of the documents, if it paid costs of probably no more than $10,000. It also indicated that Stillwater Market Neutral should seek a copy of the documents from counsel for Varga because it might be less expensive. Counsel for Varga has agreed to provide the documents to Stillwater Market Neutral.

Counsel for Stillwater and Navigator Discussed an Agreement to Consolidate the Actions

17. Subsequent to the October 1, 2009 meeting discussed above, counsel for Stillwater Market Neutral and Navigator continued discussions via telephone, e-mail and letters concerning possible consolidation of the actions and a division of labor among counsel and their clients. Despite engaging in these discussions, and inviting Stillwater Market Neutral to make a written proposal (which it did), on December 7, 2009, Navigator took the position that Stillwater Market Neutral could not participate in discovery unless and until its claim against Deloitte was sustained. Navigator also stated that it would not honor Stillwater's request that the proposal be kept confidential.
